Why Attend?

FREE to all registered conference participants, this all-day preconference event is comprised of a series of roundtables that connect emerging and established scholars of similar interests with one another. This format provides an ideal opportunity to:

- Jumpstart a new research project
- Overcome dissertation / thesis dead-ends
- Acquire feedback on current projects
- Discover venues for future publication
- Prepare for your academic career search
- Get to know, learn from, and conspire with key members of the C&W community
